HYMN OF THE WEEK
Shepherd Me, O God

CARING CONVERSATIONS

Discuss in your home or small group:

- Who do you trust and listen to? Why?
- Jesus said his sheep listen to his voice and follow him (John 10:3-4). How do you hear Jesus speaking to you today?
- In what ways do you experience Jesus as your Good Shepherd?

DEVOTIONS

Read: Psalm 23.

This is a psalm of trust that serves people especially when going through those deep, dark valley moments in life. Confidence in the Good Shepherd during difficult times expresses the “audacity of hope” that is part of the Christian faith. When have you gone through dark days and leaned on the Good Shepherd? Conclude your reflections with a time of prayer for the presence of the Good Shepherd in your life and the lives of others, and pray Psalm 23.

SERVICE

Acts 2:43-47 gives a picture of the early church that did “many wonders and signs” through sacrificial service to others. It is easy to be critical of the humanity of the church without knowing how that same church has served others selflessly and without fanfare. Think about how the church over the centuries has been a serving, loving, and healing community by providing hospitals, orphanages, housing, food, relief work, emotional care and other services for people. Consider making a contribution to one of your favorite service agencies.

RITUALS AND TRADITIONS

Christian hymn singing is a wonderful tradition of the church. Before the advent of Sunday school and the mass production of books, singing hymns was a foundational way to learn about and teach the faith. There are many beautiful sung paraphrases of Psalm 23. Sing, pray, and/or listen to the following hymns available on YouTube: The King of Love My Shepherd Is; Savior, like a Shepherd Lead Us; The Lord Is My Shepherd; and Shepherd Me, O God.
