CARING CONVERSATIONS

Discuss in your home or small group:

- Name something you are thankful for.
- The Apostle Paul was thankful for the faith, love, and hope of the church of Thessalonica. Give examples of the faith, love, and hope in the church today.
- Isaiah 45 gives praise to the anointed Cyrus, a foreign unbeliever who blesses God's people. How does God use non-Christians to be servants of God's love in the world today?

DEVOTIONS

Read: Matthew 22:15-22.

Some Bible stories are funnier than others. In this account, the Pharisees join their arch enemies of the Herodians who are aligned with the Roman ruler. Together they engage in conversation with Jesus to trap him by either offending the Jewish people or sounding like a rebel against the Roman forces. Jesus turns this potential trap on its head. The Pharisees are asked by Jesus to show a Roman coin, something the Pharisees are not to have in their possession because it has a graven image of a Roman god on it. In essence, Jesus says, "I gotcha!" Jesus' answer that they are to give the emperor what is his and give to God what is God's changes the conversation. Although the Herodians may not get the point, the Pharisees certainly would have: everything is God's! Reflect on what it means that everything we have is God's. Then offer a prayer of thanksgiving for everything we have and how to use it to the glory of God.

Conclude with the Lord's Prayer.

SERVICE

Read 1 Thessalonians 1:1-10. If children are present, play a game of "Simon Says." Talk about how we copy others. Paul acknowledges that the people imitated the faith of Paul, and others in the church have come to imitate the church of Thessalonica. Identify people who serve you as Christian role models. Find a way to express your thanks for their witness to you.

RITUALS AND TRADITIONS

One of the great traditions of the church is singing hymns of praise to God. This is particularly noted in the words of Psalm 96. Be sure to sing and/or pray the "Hymn of the Week", Great is the Lord.
